

Angular Interviews Questions

1. Angular is a framework so what is the meaning of framework?
2. What is the meaning of modules in angular and give an example on it.
3. What is observable?
4. Difference between observable and promise. (important)
5. What is subscription?
6. If I have an observable, what do I need to listen to it?
7. Does subscription stop at a point or still available?
8. What is unsubscribe?
9. Difference between template driven form and reactive form.
10. What is in reactive form and how do we use it?
11. What is the validation on reactive form?
12. What is the guard and how we use it.
13. What is the benefit of guard.
14. How to protect page that you have
15. What are the services?
16. What is the http service?
17. What is dependencies injection concept?
18. Difference between input and output.
19. How to read value.
20. What is the relation between files?
21. What is Data binding (ng model, two-way data binding (important))
22. Idea of rxJs and what is reactive programming.

You should do at least two projects with API calling with functionality.

It's good to have a portfolio with animation (to check UI skill)